

Iceland

Iceland is a very cold country that is home to over two hundred volcanoes including Eyjafjallajökull (ey-yaf-yaf-lay-o-coots) and Hekla. In 1980, Iceland became the first country to elect a female president. In Iceland, the currency they use is the króna. 1 króna is worth 0.0057 Pound sterling. So 1 pound is worth 176.49 króna.

Iceland has lots of amazing things including the northern lights, geysers and the blue lagoon. The blue lagoon is a warm, natural pool with a paste in the bottom which can be used as a face mask.

The three colours of Iceland's flag. Red represents the volcanic fires. White represents the snow and ice fields and the blue represents the ocean.

Iceland is famous for a lot of food including lamb heads and skyr (yoghurt).
